Crane
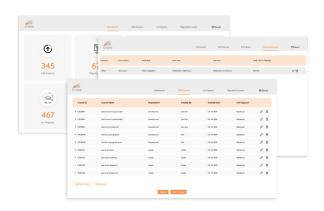

Course Migrations

Crane is the world's most advanced automated course migration and archiving application. Migrate and modernize mass courses with ease, using Crane's self-service portal.

Intelligent. Cost-effective. Course Migrations.

With Crane automation tool courses can be migrated and modernised at high volumes and in record time.

Cloud Based

With Crane automation tool courses can be migrated and modernised at high volumes and in record time.

Reporting

Crane generates a report for every course migrated capturing any errors encountered.

Self-Service

Allows course content managers to migrate and uplift courses via a user-friendly interface.

Course Uplift

Crane automates course uplift via an intelligent templating system, allowing per-course templates.

API Integration

Crane talks to all the more popular and contemporary LMSs via their APIs, simplifying migration.

Mass Migration

Crane can scale up to handle large volumes of courses: Tested at 2,500 courses per day.

Crystal Delta belongs to a new breed of companies that are set on proving that small companies can do big things. Applying extreme ownership, our daily driving purpose is delivering pragmatic technology solutions in Education. Learn more at www.crystaldelta.com/edu
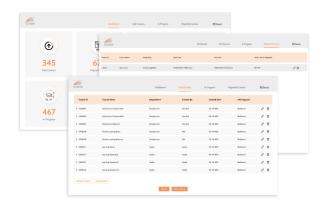

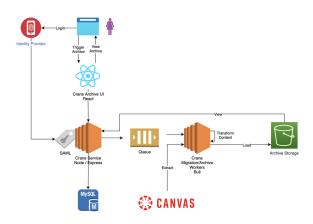

SEE IT IN ACTION

Course Archiving

The Crane course archiving service assists education institutes with the important task of moving courses and related content from a traditional LMS, into an archive for long-term storage.

Browsable Archiving Services

The Crystal Delta Course Archiving Service workflow highlights the key inputs and the responsibility of the teams from analysis to publish.

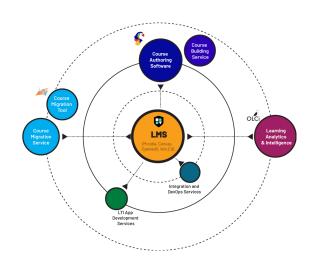

Service Workflow

Part of our Learnscape products and services, the Course Archiving Service assists education institutions with the important task of moving courses and related content from a traditional LMS into an archive for long-term storage. This will reduce licensing and hosting related costs, ensure 24/7 accessibility and provide with course restoration capability.

The EdTech Solar System

We like to think about your LMS as the "Sun" of your learning ecosystem. Around it there are several support services, platforms and tools that you need to make learning more productive, efficient, engaging and successful for your learners. Our solutions and services are here to help.

Crystal Delta belongs to a new breed of companies that are set on proving that small companies can do big things. Applying extreme ownership, our daily driving purpose is delivering pragmatic technology solutions in Education. Learn more at www.crystaldelta.com/edu

SEE IT IN ACTION